MAINTENANCE OF PEACE AND UN ORGANS

General Assembly:
General competence (art. 10 of the Charter; maintenance of peace, art. 11 section 2). Competence over reservation of the Security Council, except Acheson resolution (nº 377, 3/11/1950)

Security Council:
Responsible for the maintenance of peace (art. 24 of the UN Charter); demand in behalf of any State, either member or non-member, and of the General Assembly (art. 35 sec. 2 of the UN Charter); recommendations or decisions (ICJ 21/1971, Namibia)

The Secretary-General:
may bring to the attention of the Security Council any matter which in his opinion may threaten the maintenance of peace (art. 99 of the Charter); preventive diplomacy (Agenda for Peace 30/6/1992)